IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

APRIL 19, 1838.

Submitted, agreed to, and ordered to be printed.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be instructed to cause, for the term of one year, each officer employed in the collection of the customs to keep a daily account in writing of the time he is actually employed in the public service each and every day, and what his employment each day is; stating the same so much in detail, as to exhibit a clear and intelligible account of all his services from day to day.

Resolved, That such memoranda as is made by each and every officer, shall be quarterly sworn to, as a full, just, and complete account of the services actually rendered, and the time actually spent by him in public employment.

Resolved, That the memoranda of each district be embodied together, for the use of Congress, and that the Secretary add to it the amount of tonnage entered, cleased, or owned in such district, with the amount of revenue collected therein, and the expense of collecting the same; showing what each officer receives for all such services.

Resolved, That where any officer discharges or claims to discharge the duty of more than one office, his services in each shall be distinguished as is blined by the first the politicist for the way be thinks well as his compensation.

Blair & Rives, printers.

AND STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE P

Resolved. That on Squestery of the Transity he instructed to cause, for the term of our year, each officer supplying in the collection of the customer to keep a daily account in writing or the time in is aclustly employed at the public service each and every day, and what his supplying teach day is, stating the same so much in detail, as to exhibit a dear and intelligible account of all his survices from day to day.

resolved, that such memoranda as is made by each and every officer, shall be quarterly swarn to, as a fall, just, and complete account of the services arrangly regidered, and she unce actually spent by him the sur-

negryold

Heselved. That the memorase of each district be embodied togueer, for the use of Centrack, and that the Resembly add to it the amount of real maye entered; elegand, or expect in men-district, with the 'amount of revenue collected there in god the expense of collecting the same; showing what each officer rechives for all such saveless.

Resolved, That where any officer discharges on claims to discharge the duty of more than one office, his services in each shall be distinguished as well as his compensation.

Slair & River, prigners